

Between a classic midcentury modern vibe and stunning desert backdrop, Palm Springs, California has blossomed into a world class resort city. A laid-back lifestyle created by year round sunshine is punctuated by the colorful personality and cool sophistication of this desert paradise.

Whether flying in to Palm Springs International Airport (PSP) or driving from Los Angeles, San Diego, Phoenix or Vegas, the feel upon arrival is one of total relaxation...no urban stress here. Moods soften as the windmills come into view, and attitudes change with the first sight of the San Jacinto Mountains surrounding the city.

At the entrance to Palm Springs stands the City's welcome sign and the iconic Visitor Center, hinting at the classic mid-century landscape that is about to unfold. This is a modernist's paradise, with a sophisticated design aesthetic equal to cities many times larger.

The city's collection of hip new hotels coupled with small, exquisite boutique properties and vacation homes give this unique Southern California city an unparalleled vibe as the capital of desert cool.

It is the land of swimming pools, in every shape and size. The day begins and ends in the pool, with various breaks taken to eat, drink and play. Trendy bars and restaurants provide an excuse to get out of the pool and dress for the sun. Leisure afternoons are spent finding vintage clothing and home décor ideas that inspire. Evenings are alfresco, with classic cocktails, innovative menus and creative chefs.

Try to remember what relaxed actually feels like... then come play in Palm Springs.

Palm Springs Aerial Tramway

Climb aboard nature's own carnival ride on a rotating tram car that sweeps up the dramatic cliffs of Chino Canyon to an alpine wonderland 8,500 feet atop Mt. San Jacinto. Cool summer hikes and snowballs in winter are a playful contrast to the valley below.

Villagefest

A vibrant street fair appears every Thursday evening in downtown Palm Springs, with creative artwork, handmade crafts and tasty street foods. No motor traffic, just great music and a great vibe.

Palm Springs Art Museum / A+D Center

As a cultural and educational leader, the Palm Springs Art Museum provides collections, exhibitions, and programs to connect people to the art and culture of the community. The Architecture and Design Center is the hub of the museum's exploration of architecture and design, with a growing archive of collections.

Backstreet Art District

Continue your exploration of art through a dozen artistowned galleries and working studios. Discover artists creating original and contemporary paintings, sculpture, photography, jewelry and ceramics.

Palm Springs Air Museum

Come and view one of the world's largest collection of flyable WWII aircrafts. Exhibits and activities allow visitors of all ages to gain a fresh perspective of this time in America's history. Kids can even learn to fly on simulators!

Agua Caliente Casino Palm Springs

Agua Caliente Casino Palm Springs offers the newest games, a variety of table action, and high-limit gaming, plus fine dining and shopping, all in a fabulous resort setting in historic downtown Palm Springs at the site of the area's natural hot water springs.

Tahquitz Creek Golf Resort

Tahquitz Creek Golf Resort is one of the premier public golf resorts in Palm Springs. Play golf within minutes from Palm Springs International Airport, hotels and downtown. It offers two challenging championship courses, a 150 stall grass driving range, chipping green, two large putting greens, golf instruction, and a cafe.

Palm Springs Power

During June and July, the Palm Springs Power baseball club recruits elite collegiate players from across the country to play. Thousands of cooling misters, plenty of seating and a healthy dose of Americana make for a perfect summer outing. The California Winter League schedule in January and February allows for baseball in the winter months as well.

Tribal History

For at least 5,000 years, the Palm Springs area has been home to the Agua Caliente Band of Cahuilla Indians. The Cahuilla Indian name for the Palm Springs area was Sec-he (boiling water) and the Spanish who arrived named it Agua Caliente (hot water). Then came the name "Palm Springs" in reference to both the native Washingtonia palm tree and the hot mineral springs on the tribal lands. Today, remnants of the traditional Cahuilla society exist in the exquisite canyons that the tribe has worked to protect, while current tribal leaders work within the community to help strengthen and protect today's modern city.

Desert Modernism

In the 1920s and '30s, European architectural pioneers brought Palm Springs a taste of the International Style. Following their lead, more architects created their own regional style, "Desert Modernism" from the 1930's to the 1970's by paying attention to the desert's vistas, sun and light. These bold, innovative structures expressed the spirit of their unique time and place. Hollywood stars enjoyed the architecture, city fathers embraced it, and by the mid-1950s, the middle class adopted it as well.

Today, Palm Springs is known as a mecca of modernism across the globe, attracting architects, designers, and lovers of all things mid-century.

Albert Frey's "Tramway

Gas Station", now the City's Visitor Center, welcomes incoming travelers with a kiteshaped roof set against the backdrop of the San Jacinto Mountains and a bright blue sky.

Hollywood History

Hollywood has been coming to Palm Springs ever since there was a Hollywood. The history of being the playground of the Rat Pack and their entourage adds to the allure of this classic era. The city's colorful past enhanced its popularity and fueled explosive growth through the 1940's, 50's and 60's. This reputation continues to play a part in the future of Palm Springs, as the vintage vibe is irresistible.

Health + Wellness = Happiness

This is the place to leave the rest of the world far behind. Eternal sunshine, blue skies and a casual pace add to the sense of well-being, with indoor/outdoor spas, holistic health treatments, natural mineral waters, saltwater pools and yoga heal the heart, soul and body.

Although many lodging properties have bikes on property ready for guests use, they can also be rented for an easy morning ride around town, or for a challenging workout in the canyons of the valley.

The stunning desert scenery has placed the city as one of the most sought after golf destinations in the world. Tahquitz Creek Golf Resort offers both links and traditional country club-style courses with panoramic views of Palm Springs. Escena Golf Club lies on a Jack Nicklaus-designed course with a spectacular clubhouse and sunset views. The Indian Canyons features a North course, home to the "Disney Fountain", and the South course, nestled at the foot of the mountains. Within a 30-minute drive lie dozens more...perfect timing to be back downtown for dinner.

Hiking

The mountains and canyons of Palm Springs are ancient and awesome. Lush green palms add contrast to the orange, red and brown shades of the San Jacinto Mountains. The native lands of the Agua Caliente Tribe, the Indian Canyons, are one of the most beautiful and culturally sensitive areas of the Agua Caliente Band of Cahuilla Indians reservation. Even more amazing, these canyons lie just south of the City, and can be accessed for a short morning hike, or for exploring all day. Waterfalls, stone pools, and desert blooms show off their own distinctive beauty.

A beginning hiker can take a short hike and get beautiful views over the city. More hardy hikers can follow the trails across the San Jacinto and Santa Rosa mountain ranges. Hikers can easily access trails high above the city by taking the Aerial Tramway and exploring over 50 miles of alpine wonderland in the San Jacinto State Park.

A reason that many visitors come to Palm Springs is to visit Joshua Tree National Park, one hour's drive from the city. Nearly 800,000 acres encompass two deserts that make up the Park, the Mojave and Colorado. A fascinating variety of plants, including the Joshua trees themselves, grow in a land sculpted by strong winds and occasional torrents of rain.

Nights brilliantly displayed with starry skies, a rich cultural history, and surreal geologic features add to the wonder of this vast wilderness in Southern California.

Boutique Hotels & Onns

You'll find a friendly greeting always awaits.

Small inns and boutique hotels are plentiful in Palm Springs...so much so, that some people visit just to enjoy these tiny gems. Hip, cool mid-century classics are tucked in next to bougainvillea-draped beauties. Modern rustic lodges find their way to romantic retreats. Intimate hideaways ooze old world charm. Sophisticated glamour melts into mellow adobe haciendas. Each is framed by the dramatic backdrop of the San Jacinto Mountains and a bright blue sky. Most are independently owned and operated, and all are less than fifty rooms...some a mere handful...surrounding the definitive Palm Springs pool.

The personal attention, friendly ambience and outdoor living style is an experience quite different from any other. Evening happy hours, barbeques by the pool, midnight swims...all a private lifestyle among the beautiful California desert and the cool vibe of Palm Springs. These are surely small treasures not to be missed.

Why settle for a room when you can get a whole house with your pool?

Here's your chance to experience a home away from home. To live like a local. Breakfast is poolside under a bright blue sky. By afternoon, kids are splashing in the pool, adults are playing golf and shopping. Or sipping cocktails under the palms. Golfers choose villas with patios fronting fairways and greens, while couples enjoy romantic retreats. Shoppers and nightlife hounds opt for downtown condos with mountain views, while lovers of all things midcentury appreciate the treasure trove of gems built by renowned architects.

Professionally managed and privately owned homes and condos are intertwined with timeshares made available by owners, so there is certainly no shortage of choices. And budgets range from comfy cottages and condos to magnificent celebrity homes and private estates. If friends and family are in on the vacay, it becomes a downright value...and with your own pool, no less. As the sun sets behind the mountains, social hour begins with Palm Springs essentials...pool, barbeque, midnight swim, and playful attitude.

We've been gay since back in the day.

With more gay resorts than any place in the world, Palm Springs has become one of the most welcoming year-round destinations for fun in the sun. When it comes to picking a place to stay, Palm Springs is equally accommodating. From mid-century modern gems to romantic Spanish architecture, all are warm, welcoming and independently operated. Whether you're marrying the one you love, or simply planning a quick getaway, the rich history, stunning scenery, vintage vibe and community spirit come together in a playful oasis that is like no place else.

Fly to Palm Springs

Palm Springs International Airport (PSP) is one of "America's Most Stress-Free Airports," with its outdoor design and a unique open-air layout. Daily non-stop flights are available from major cities across the U.S. and Canada. Downtown accommodations and the Convention Center are mere minutes away.

Drive to Palm Springs

Palm Springs is located two hours from Los Angeles, Orange County and San Diego. Phoenix and Las Vegas lie 4 hours away. Centrally located in the heart of Southern California, Palm Springs is less than a gas tank away, but feels like a world apart.

Palm Springs Visitor Information Center

Designed by world-renowned mid-century modern architect Albert Frey, the Palm Springs Visitors Center is your resource to play, stay, shop and dine in Palm Springs. The center is open seven days a week. 2901 N. Palm Canyon Drive 800-347-7746

Welwood Murray Memorial Library

Another classic gem designed by modernist architect John Porter Clark sits in the heart of downtown. Visitor information, computers and daily periodicals are available. Come in to rest, read and recharge. This branch of the Palm Springs Public Library is also home to the Palm Springs Historical Society's Research Archive. 100 S. Palm Canyon Drive 760-323-8296
